Strength in Numbers

Advocates for a wide variety of constituencies and causes work to build a sense of community among like-minded voters and encourage them to turn out on Election Day. High voter participation can make a group a force to be reckoned with and can pressure politicians to pay attention to their concerns.

Let Us Help You Vote

Advocacy groups and public service organizations, as well as state and local election offices, work to register, educate, and assist voters.

VOTER'S CHECK LIST

1. BE SURE YOU'RE REGISTERED.

2. KNOW THE ISSUES. Ask questions. Go to rallies. Read the papers. Listen to speeches.

3. LOOK AT THE RECORDS of the parties and the candidates. You can't judge without a score card.

4. GET ACTIVE IN POLITICS YOURSELF. Become a worker

—a precinct captain—a poll watcher. Do some phoning. Take someone to the polls. If possible, give financial support to the party or candidate of your choice. DO SOMETHING.

5. TALK UP the need to register and vote with your friends and neighbors.

6. START AT THE BOTTOM with local issues and candidates.

"Government that is closest to the people generally is best."

7. DECIDE FOR YOURSELF. It's part of your birthright as an American citizen.

8. MARK UP A SAMPLE BALLOT IN ADVANCE. (They are published in the papers.)

9. ALLOW TIME to vote. Make a date with yourself and keep it.
